Madame Pobe:

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits!

As you know, the festive season is here and we have been very busy lately preparing for our upcoming 7th Festival of Interactive Learning Resources in the celebration of Education Week and this is one of the highlight events on the Culmination Day. I remembered in one of our academic topic discussions, you made mention to witness and benchmark it.

I am writing this letter to invite you and your Team in the CID to celebrate this festive season with us DepEd Family of the Division of Mandaue City on December 13, 2024 from 8:00-5:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Mandaue City Cultural and Sports Complex, Mandaue City. We can also discuss together with the rest of the members of our program management team on how would be able to produce these interactive learning materials like the locally made self-learning modules, short stories and other learning materials not just for the regular learners but also for the learners with special needs and Muslim learners in the formal system.

We cannot wait to celebrate with you and your Team!

Very truly yours,
