DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 07-212, s. 2026

To: Asst. Schools Division Superintendent
Public Schools District Supervisors
Division Information Technology Officer
Concerned School Heads
All Others Concerned

FUND ALLOCATION FOR THE IDENTIFIED UNSERVED SCHOOLS
UNDER THE SCHOOL CONNECTIVITY PROGRAM FOR INTERNET SERVICE PROVIDER (ISP) SUBSCRIPTION.

1. Pursuant to Joint Memorandum dated May 19, 2026, entitled "Final Validation of School Internet Connectivity Data," and the validated connectivity status of schools within the Division, this Office announces the allocation of funds to identified schools that remain unserved or without reliable internet connectivity to support the implementation of digital education, data reporting, and administrative operations.
2. Internet connectivity is essential in facilitating access to learning resources, submission of reports, implementation of DepEd programs, and communication among schools and stakeholders. Following the validation and certification of school internet connectivity status, schools identified as unserved shall be provided financial assistance for connectivity-related interventions.
3. The amount shall be charged against sub-allotment release order no. RO-13-26-00773, subject to existing accounting, auditing, and budgeting rules and regulations.
4. The following identified schools are hereby authorized to receive budget allocation for internet connectivity requirements:
